

ONLINE LEADERSHIP TRAINING Saturday, February 17, 2024

8:50 am ZOOM Room Opens/Networking
8:55 am Welcome - Sujata Yellaepeddi, District Director

9:00 am Keynote Speaker
Charley Patton, DTM, PRA
“Lead with Intent: From Voluntold to Volunteer”

If you joined Toastmasters to improve your public speaking skills and only stumbled upon the Leadership Track, then you are probable familiar with being “VOLUNTOLD”. Perhaps you too have: “Fallen Up the Stairs” and been successful, but how much more successful might you be if you climbed those stairs with purpose? This keynote presentation will demystify the lessons of leading, motivating, and changing lives so you can go from “Voluntold to Volunteer”!

Bio: Charley Patton, DTM PRA, joined Toastmasters in December 2006 a few months after his home club chartered. Shortly after joining his home club, Charley became the Club President ('07), then an Area Governor ('07-'08), Lt Governor Education and Training ('08-'09), District Governor ('09-'10), and finished out the latter half of the Lt Governor Marketing term (Jan-Jun '11). During his District Governor year, District 5 achieved Distinguished status for the fifth year in a row, for which he happily received the Excellence in Leadership award on behalf of the members. In'17-18, Charley was privileged to be appointed Region 2 Advisor. Charley has since stayed active at the region level providing training, speeches, and mentoring around Southern California. He has earned the DTM award three times under the legacy education program, and is working on completing his fourth via Pathways.

Charley is currently a member of two Toastmaster clubs.

EDUCATIONAL SESSIONS

10:00 am Session 1: "Quality Clubs"
Jim Taylor, DTM

In this educational session our presenter will share with you what is needed for a club to be a "Quality Club".

- Club Leadership
- Recruitment
- Retention
- Quality Meetings
- Connection
- Activities

BIO: A 30-year member of Toastmasters, Jim has enjoyed the many projects that all stemmed from his involvement in this world-renown speaking organization.

For the past eleven years Jim has been a TEDx San Diego Speaker Coach with five different TEDx organizations. His magical journey has included shaping his creative experiences as a performer and graduate at Finest City Improv, an enthusiastic member of the writing team of "The Three and a Half Star Musical", author of the novel "Pacing the Cage" and since 2015, the Director of new plays at the annual North Park Playwright Festival.

Jim has also been the Emcee twice in the annual fundraiser for San Diego's Wheelchair Dancers, an organization providing free dance lessons for anyone in a wheelchair.

In early 2017, Jim helped launch a new TEDx talk main event at the Donovan Correctional Facility, one of the most challenging experiences of his life. He continued his role again as Speaker Coach at Donovan in 2018. In 2018 Jim also launched the first Toastmasters Club at Donovan.

Jim is thrilled about writing, performing or working behind the curtain in a wide range of speaking or performing projects.

Jim is and member of two clubs in District 5, Scripps Teasers where he is VP Membership and is the Club President of Improvicus Toastmasters.

NOTES:

11:00 am Session 2: Distinguished Club Program (DCP):
The blueprint of successful Toastmasters Clubs
Yesica Vazquez, DTM

Distinguished Toastmaster, Yesica Vázquez joined Toastmasters in 2016. Since her involvement with the organization, she's been able to witness the importance of instilling the value and benefit of the DCP - Distinguished Club Program and how it ties to a club's longevity, productivity and active participation of its members.

Her presentation will focus on the guidance the Distinguished Club Program offers and how tied with the Executive Committee provides a blueprint to help set realistic club standards and achieve DCP goals throughout the Toastmasters year.

BIO: During her tenure with Toastmasters Yésica has served District 5 in various roles such as: Club Secretary and Mentor Program Administrator for San Diego Toastmasters 7, Club President for Bilingüe Toastmasters, Area 9 Director, Southern Division Director and most recently as a District 5 Leadership Trainer, providing assistance during District Club Officer Training.

Yesica is currently a member of Chula Vista 108 and San Diego Toastmasters 7.

NOTES:

12:00 Noon BREAK

AFTERNOON SESSION

1:00 pm Club Officer Training ALL ROLES